Policies

Refunds:

1) If a student cancels before 60 days before the start of the course, the total of any fees already paid are transferable in full to another advanced course for the same year or the next year OR to another person for the same year OR can be a donation to The Kairos Foundation. In addition, at any time prior to the training, a full refund minus the registration fee will be given to those who are not able to attend because of a death in the family or a major emergency. If the transferred tuition is not used the year following registration, the non-refundable deposit is increased to $395.

2) If the student cancels and wants a refund, the money returned will be reduced by the non-refundable registration fee and the following:

- a. 90 or more prior to the course, $100
- b. 60-89 days prior to the course, $250
- c. 30-59 days prior to the course, $500
- d. less than 30 days prior to the course, $750

3) Refunds will be made from the Administrative Center within 30 days of the confirmation of cancellation with the course coordinator.

Student incentives:

1) Area Warrior Coordinators receive a $200 discount on an Advanced Course for their calendar year of service.

2) Couples credit: If a couple attends WOW I, WOW II or any advanced course together, they receive a $200 credit toward the total of their combined course fees.

3) Family credit: If three or more members of a family attend an Advanced Course together they receive a $500 credit toward the total of all course fees.

Note:

It is a student's responsibility to keep a copy of the registration form, policies and other documents.
